

OPEN POSITION AT IRB BARCELONA SCIENTIFIC OFFICER (Ref. AD/13/02)

IRB Barcelona is a self-standing, non-profit institution devoted to basic and applied biomedical research. It was set up in 2005 jointly by the Government of Catalonia and the University of Barcelona and is located at the Barcelona Science Park. The institute currently has more than 430 members (scientific, technical and administrative staff) from all over the world, who work across disciplines to advance research in the biomedical sciences.

The management team at IRB Barcelona is seeking a SCIENTIFIC OFFICER to join the Research and Academic Administration department. We are looking for a dynamic, self-motivated individual with a solid scientific background and experience in scientific and technological management. She or he should have communication, organization and team-working skills, and have previous experience in other R&D institutions in similar positions.

DUTIES

- Promotion and support of applications to EU and other international projects.
- Promotion and follow-up of collaborative scientific and technological actions.
- Collaboration in the management of the internal technological resources.

CANDIDATE REQUIREMENTS

- PhD degree in life sciences in topics related to the main research lines at the institute.
- At least 3 years of experience in managing scientific administration issues in similar institutions.
- Previous experience in international and EU projects management.
- Fluent spoken and written English.
- Ready to travel.
- Communication, organization and teamwork skills.
