Maths4Life Programme - 2020 Call

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Section II, article 6, letters c) and q) of the Articles of Association of the Fundació Institut de Recerca Biomèdica (hereafter referred to as IRB Barcelona) establish that this institution will promote activities that address collaboration and knowledge transfer and also make calls for fellowship (herein referred to as grant) applications and subsequent awards of the same.

The grants are assigned to students enrolled in an undergraduate programme or MSc who undertake a research internship under the supervision of group leaders at IRB Barcelona.

I. Objective

These Terms and Conditions serve to regulate the summer internship grants for the 2020 Maths4Life call.

II. Grant Call

The sixth edition of the “Maths4Life” initiative is aimed at outstanding and highly motivated undergraduates and MSc students with a strong interest in mathematics and statistics.

Four grants are offered to undertake an internship at IRB Barcelona from July to September 2020. The grant stipends included in this call will be covered by IRB Barcelona structural funds for a maximum of 4 months from the start of the internship.

A total of 250 h of research work (minimum of 20 h/week) will be distributed from July to September 2020 upon agreement with the project supervisor at IRB Barcelona.

Awardees will be contracted by IRB Barcelona and will receive a gross amount of €1200 for the training period.

Awardees will be offered the opportunity to participate in in-house institutional activities.

Awardees will be supervised by a group leader at IRB Barcelona (or the designated senior researcher) previously assigned and agreed with the awardee before signature of the contract. This group leader will oversee that the duties assigned to the awardee are fulfilled and will notify IRB Barcelona's Academic Office of issues affecting the undertaking of these duties or other pertinent circumstances, so that corrective measures can be taken and/or proceedings to withdraw the grant can be started.

III. Requirements and Selection Criteria

1.- The Maths4Life Programme has been designed to encourage and further the training of young emerging researchers in biomedical research topics.

- Addressed to BSc students who have completed at least 120 ECTS of a BSc degree in Mathematics, Physics, Statistics, Informatics, or related areas by June 2020 and MSc students in the same fields.
- Applicants should have a sound knowledge of statistics or programming for the field of biology, chemistry or medicine,
- and a good knowledge of English.

2.- Candidates will be selected exclusively on merit, on the basis of academic records, motivation letter, as well as other criteria, such as internationalisation, previous research experience, and letter of reference. No selection criteria for positive or negative discrimination will be applied.

IV. Application Procedure

Before the deadline, applicants should send the documents listed below to phd@irbbarcelona.org indicating "Maths4Life candidacy" in the subject box.

- CV
- A scanned copy of the student's certified Academic Record. These documents must show the grades attained in exam periods.
- Additional certificates, prizes, and recognitions
- Motivation letter
- A letter of reference from university lecturers or scientists with whom the applicant has studied or worked. Only letters with an official letterhead and signature will be accepted.

Applicants should indicate up to two research groups in which they would like to work, in order of preference. Moreover, if they are interested in a particular research group, they should make reference to it in the motivation letter. More information on the research activities of each group can be found on the IRB Barcelona web pages.

Referees must send their letters directly to IRB Barcelona to the address: phd@irbbarcelona.org. Only letters with an official letterhead and signature will be accepted. Candidates are responsible for ensuring that their referees send the letter. Applications not accompanied by this letter will not be processed.

Applicants should submit information wherever possible in English (CV, motivation letter, summary of work experience). If the certified academic record is not in Catalan, Spanish or English, applicants should also attach a translation into one of these languages.

V. Selection

After the application deadline:

1. A Review Board comprising IRB Barcelona group leaders and members of the IRB PhD Advisory Committee will draw up a preliminary list of candidates.
2. Group leaders may interview the invited candidates and will make a final selection.
3. Applicants can follow the status of their application upon request to the email phd@irbbarcelona.org
4. Applicants who have not been successful but have received a positive evaluation will be put on a waiting list to cover possible renunciations and future positions.

VI. Calendar

29 April 2020 - Call opening

29 May 2020 - Call deadline and preselection of the candidates

June 2020 - Notification sent to successful candidates

Summer internships start as of 1st July 2020.

At the end of the internship, each student must prepare a summary report and send it to both the IRB Barcelona Academic Office at phd@irbbarcelona.org, as well as to the project supervisor.

VII. Communication of Grant Award

1. Selected candidates will be informed of the grant award via email. After acceptance of the grant, awardees will receive detailed information.

VIII. Rights of Awardees

1. To be provided with the necessary assistance to perform their studies and research activities. They will have a tutor who will provide assistance during their internship at IRB Barcelona.
2. To have their intellectual and industrial property rights regulated by the work contract with IRB Barcelona.
3. To have employment and Social Security rights derived from the formal employment contract with IRB Barcelona.
4. To exercise intellectual property rights derived from their training activity in accordance with their contribution, as established in the Intellectual Property Law, Royal Decree 1/1996, 12 April. These rights will be independent, compatible and accumulative with other rights that may arise from the research developed, without negatively affecting the rights of the joint effort when the awardees participate in or are associated with a joint research project.
5. To have possible industrial property rights regulated by Patent Law 24/2015, 24 July, and Royal Decree 55/2002, 18 January, governing the exploitation and license of rights on discoveries made in public research organizations. Said rights will not be linked to the grant.

IX. Responsibilities of Awardees

1. To fulfil the terms and conditions established in this call.
2. To perform their research activity under the supervision of a project supervisor at IRB Barcelona while the grant is effective. In addition, they must perform the activities foreseen in the research training and specialisation programmes of the Institute, as well as satisfactorily fulfil the objectives of the training programme.

3. To comply with the internal regulations of IRB Barcelona, particularly regarding working conditions and the prevention of occupational risks.
4. To inform IRB Barcelona in advance of articles that carry their names and that are published in scientific journals.
5. To undertake the duties that correspond to them as a result of being contracted by IRB Barcelona, as well as those associated with inclusion in the Social Security System.
6. To inform IRB Barcelona if they receive other grants or funding.

X. Termination of Grants

The grants will be revoked in the case that the awardee has withheld or falsified information. The grant will also be terminated if the awardee does not fulfil the responsibilities described in point IX.

XI. Incompatibility

Awardees will be devoted exclusively to the research or technical training and specialisation activities defined in this call. The grants included in this call are not compatible with any other type of grant or fellowship from other public or private organisations.

XII. Data Protection

In accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation), Organic Law 3/2018 of December 5, and other applicable regulations governing personal data protection, any personal data provided by applicants will be incorporated into the Academic file of IRB Barcelona, for which the Institute is the data processor. The purpose of keeping such data is to manage our relationship with applicants. Applicants may exercise the rights of access, rectification deletion, opposition, transfer and expiry, as well as limitation in data processing of said information by contacting the Institute at the following e-mail address: dataprotection@irbbarcelona.org, or by writing to the following postal address: C/ Baldiri Reixac, 10, 08028, Barcelona.
