Frequent Questions FAQs

SELECTION PROCESS

Does the selection process involve an interview?

Yes. Pre-selected candidates will be invited to an interview at IRB Barcelona (Spain). Travel and accommodation costs will be covered by the IRB Barcelona International PhD Programme. Alternative arrangements will be made (e.g. Online interviews) if the circumstances of the global pandemic do not permit face-to-face interviews.

When will I know whether I have been invited for an interview?

If you are selected for an interview, you will receive the invitation by March 2020.

If I am selected to join one of the IRB Barcelona research groups, when does the fellowship start?

Selected candidates should start their fellowships on September 2021.

Can I check the progress of my application once I have submitted?

The online application process will allow you to check the status of your application, including information on your letters of reference.

Do I need to register separately with a university to do my PhD at IRB Barcelona?

Yes. Researchers are free to register with the University of their choice, normally a local one (Universitat de Barcelona, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, Universitat Politècnica de Catalunya, or Universitat Pompeu Fabra). They complete their coursework at this university, while concurrently doing practical training and work toward their thesis in an IRB Barcelona research laboratory. Researchers generally spend up to four years at IRB Barcelona, after which they complete and defend their thesis.
